

Membership Application

The Arizona State Contractors Coalition is an alliance of construction industry associations dedicated to furthering and protecting the interests of the construction industry in Arizona.

ASCC monitors issues critical to the industry, interacting with local government, the State Legislature and members of Congress to promote just, viable and economically sound practices and law governing the industry.

ASCC is committed to protecting the rights of all contractors, seeking to establish and maintain fair and equitable solutions to Risk Transfer and Proportional Liability, Retention and Prompt Payment for services rendered, as well as the Immigration and Workforce Development crisis facing our state.

ASCC is represented by government relations specialists DeMenna Public Affairs, with efforts underwritten by coalition member dues, supporter donations, and industry fund raising events.
